NEW CULTURE CAMP CURRICULUM ADOPTED FOR URBAN LEAGUE SUMMER PROGRAM

Fort Lauderdale-- More than 100 Broward County children will explore world cultures through music, story telling, crafts, dance and food using the new Culture Camp Curriculum adopted by the Urban League of Broward County for its 2003 Summer Enrichment Program. The program begins June 16, 2003 and will operate for eight weeks.

Developed by Judith Keiser, a mother, in response to the events of September 11, the Culture Camp Curriculum offers fun hands-on experiences to help students appreciate cultural diversity and explore their own capacities for team-building, cooperative play, and conflict prevention and resolution. As suggested by its tagline, the curriculum's focus is "teaching peace through play."

In addition to operating a 2-week Broward County day camp as a pilot project this summer, The Culture Company makes its Culture Camp Curriculum available to organizations, such as The Urban League, with complementary goals.

The summer enrichment program is funded by a grant from The Children's Services Council, which provides funding for programs benefiting children in Broward County. The Culture Camp Curriculum added a unique "value-added" component to the proposal made by the Urban League, which competed for funding against forty-five proposals from various agencies serving children in Broward County.

For more information about the Urban League Summer Enrichment program, please contact Lisa Barker at 954-625-2544, and for more information about The Culture Camp, please contact Judith Keiser at 954-444-0446.
