CULTURAL TOUR OF WORLD RELIGIONS/SUMMER SUNDAYS

Frequently Asked Questions

Q How long is the program?

A Cultural Tour of World Religious/Summer Sundays Curriculum covers 12 sessions exploring Earth-Centered Religious, Hinduism, Buddhism, Jainism, Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Sikhism, Unitarian Universalism and Baha'i. The first and last sessions introduce children to major religious themes and give them the opportunity to reinforce what they have learned during the summer.

Q What is the structure of Cultural Tour of World Religions/Summer Sundays Curriculum?

A Cultural Tour uses a historical/chronological approach to show the relationship between world religions. We feature a variety of activities and stories from each religion so the children get a taste of the main beliefs, holidays, and peace heroes of the religions. The summer ends with a special wrap-up session featuring a game that strengthens familiarity with various religious symbols.

Q What is the format of each session?

A Each session includes circle time, a story, an activity, and a craft, as well as background material for the RE teacher. We provide at least one hour of material, plus variations on activities and crafts, to accommodate your creativity and needs.

Q What ages are served by the Cultural Tour of World Religions/Summer Sundays Curriculum?

A The curriculum provides material primarily suitable for children ages five through ten (K-

3rd grade, though older children have enjoyed it also. We use icons to show whether certain activities are more suitable for younger or older children.

Q What if we have a class with mixed ages?

A The curriculum was designed to accommodate various developmental skill and interest levels, and can be easily varied as needed.

Q What makes it so easy for RE teachers to use?

A Any RE teacher, whether new or seasoned, will appreciate the organized layout (each session starts with advance preparation and supplies needed), background information on each religion, and the engaging material (kids thrive on the activities).

Q How does the curriculum accommodate active and creative children?

A Every session features active components that give the children the chance to move and explore all their senses, and the crafts use varied media (not just paper and markers!).

Q Do you have anything that adds even more dimension to this unique curriculum?

A We have Religion Crates available for rental that contain artifacts pertaining to the religions being studied and their representative cultures. We are also happy to help you customize your experience by providing ideas about other resources, cost recoupment methods, and suggestions for festivals and other celebrations of world religions or cultures.
